

HAPPIER TIMES: Aimee with dad Hennie after winning an earlier match in Samoa

Heat gets to Aimee in Samoa

Aimee Schnetler (Ncundu Bowling Club, KwaZulu-Natal) representing South Africa at the Junior Commonwealth Games in Samoa collapsed with heat exhaustion and was taken to hospital.

She was unable to complete her last match against Cook Islands in the women's singles.

She is recovering.

Rowan Watkins (Goedemoed Bowling Club, Southern Free State) played superbly to just miss a play-off place. He ended third in his section behind eventual champions Australia and New Zealand.

Australians won the men, women's singles and mixed pairs events. Play-offs: Pairs: Semi-finals: New Zealand 9 Cook Islands 21; Australia 18, Malaysia 11; final: Australia 32, Cook Islands 6; bronze: Malaysia.
