

Johannesburg . – Commonwealth Games final squad member Susan Nel (Rustenburg, Sables) eased into the fours quarter-finals at the Warwick Wealth/Bowls SA Women National Champion ships played here today (Tuesday), but must beware the continuing form of the holders from George, Eden Bowls skipped by talented Elma Davis.

The Garden Route quartet made mincemeat of Protea and multiple champion at all disciplines Sharon Glenn (Bedfordview, JBA 23-5, sounding a warning to all.

Jill Hackland, the elegant singles champion a year ago had no answer to Sables' Mabs Rees's Ruimsig side who prevailed 17-14, while Protea Corrie Breitenbach (Potch Town, NW) showed her Port Natal opponents little respect in an easy victory.

Louise Larkin, the Durban international is out, courtesy of Denise Glaun from tiny Hillandale, SFS.

- Issued on behalf of Bowls SA (+27114766075) by Alan Simmonds, Media Officer (twickers@gmail.com)

++++

Johannesburg: Results of first round play-offs in the Warwick Wealth/BowlsSA Women's National Bowls Championship being played in Johannesburg on Tuesday:

Play-off Rd 1:

S Nel (Rustenburg, Sables 19, L Wessels (PHS OB, GNB) 3; M Rees (Ruimsig, Sables)17, J Hackland (Umhlali, KZN) 14; C Breitenbach (Potch Town, NW) 18, Y Mamotte (Stella Pk, P Natal) 10; E Davis (holder, George, EDB) 23, S Glenn (Bedfordview, JBA) 5; L van den Berg (Belgravia, JBA) 18, N Roos (Dundee, Natal) 4; D Glaun (Hillandale,SFS)16, L Larkin (Durban, P Natal) 11.

++++